THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Exodus 20:3-17

Exodus 20:1-18)

1. Worship no other god but me.
2. Do not make yourself images/idols.
3. Do not use Gods' name for evil purpose.
4. Observe the Sabbath and keep it Holy.

5. Respect your father and mother so that you may live long on earth.
6. Do not commit murder.
7. Do not commit adultery.
8. Do not steal
9. Do not accuse anyone falsely.
10. Do not covet your neighbour's property.

The Ten Commandments and their relationship to Christian living

Exodus 20:1-18

- The first four commandments explain how we should relate with God.
- The fifth commandment to the tenth teaches how to relate with each other for harmonious living.

Values and skills in the Ten Commandments that enhance Christian living

 2. Conflict resolution
 3. Conflict thinking
 - 4.
 - 5.

Lessons which Christian learn from the Ten Commandments

- Christian should obey the ten commandments to promote harmonious living among themselves.

	Commandment	Lesson
1	Worship no other god but me.	God is supreme
2	Do not make yourself images/idols.	Putting God First
3	Do not use Gods' name for evil purpose.	The name of God is holy
4	Observe the Sabbath and keep it Holy.	God worked for 6 days and rested on the seventh. The Sabbath day is the day of the Lord. God made the Sabbath holy and blessed it. We should not work on the Sabbath day
5	Respect your father and mother so that you may live long on earth.	God commands us to respect our parents Our parents provide us with basic needs and guidance.

		God will bless us with long life if we obey our parents.
6	Do not commit murder	We should not get angry with other people. - Hating people lead to murder. - We should forgive those who wrong us - We should not revenge
7	Do not commit adultery.	Adultery is a sexual sin which involves in engaging in sex with a person you are not married to. Anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has committed adultery in his heart. Adultery destroys families
8	Do not steal	Stealing is forbidden by God. Stealing shows lack of respect for other people's property. Stealing causes suffering to people. We should avoid the temptation to steal We should be satisfied with what we have
9	Do not accuse anyone falsely.	The commandment is not to tell lies. Telling lies shows lack of love for our neighbors. We should not swear but tell the truth always We should not accept bribes to condemn anyone falsely
10	Do not covet your neighbor's property.	Desiring other peoples' property is breaking the tenth commandment. Greed comes from selfishness and lack of concern for other

BIBLE STORIES

GOD'S POWER

How God's power helped Samson to defeat his enemies

Judges 15:14-17

- He was the son of Manoah.
- He asked God for strength.
- He married Delilah.
- God's power enabled Samson to fight and kill his enemies, the philistines
- God is able to empower us when we put our trust in Him.
- Delilah noticed that Samson strength was in his hair and she planned for way to hand over Samson to Philistines.
- The Philistines king met together and celebrated and offered great scarifies to their god dagon.
- They sang, "our god has given us victory over our enemy Samson"
- Samson said to the boy who was leading him by the hand, "let me touch the pillars that hold up the building. I want to lean on them.
- We had Philistines kings and about 3000men and women under roof watching Samson.
- Samson pushed the pillars with all his strength and the buildings went down killing all the people.
- Samson killed more people at his death than he had killed during his life time.

How Christian depend on God's power to overcome challenges.

Judges 15:14-17
